to Todi. McDanald barrily best out the threw to the place.

The Saims however, were not to maintain their lead for the great length of three. In their half Torse, ted the count forth and Thomasion were easy only but Worth stored to left. Tody then denoted and Worth stid to the plate burely alread of the throw from themselved and Worth stid to the plate burely alread of the throw from themselved and Worth stid to the plate burely alread of the throw from topowits.

The store was not to stand this way for long the finite part to Morris again in the sixth. Beatly singled, but was caught at second on Fisher's grounder. Grover then drove a clean one to the left center good for three lates, and Fisher remped bone. Benowitz singled, but Nufer and Crooky were easy outs.

but Nufer and Crossly were cass outs.

Only by brilliant playing were the Saints able to prevent the visitors from tieins the count again in the accent had it was a pretty pag by Joe Romowitz that saved the day. After two onts. Query doubled, Morris singled, scoring him, the Turactwirler taking second on the play. Burke drove a screamer to center. Bonowitz came in, took the ball on the first beamer and pagged to the plate carbing Morris out, he refused to return to the pitcher's box for several minutes, going to the dugout instead. Buckley placed a time lind on Morris action and he returned to the mound.

That was the last for Tulas, for Hovik was invited for the next two innings. George Pisher's being drive to right center that missed paining over the boards by a few just brought. Combiny across for the fourth score in the seventh imming and Bonowitz's double, a sacrificant by Mishemath and a near single hy Crossly counted the fifth run in the eighth.
